

BOUYGUES CONSTRUCTION APPOINTS FRANCK LE GUILLOU VICE PRESIDENT, CENTRAL PURCHASING

Franck Le Guillou has been appointed Vice President, Central Purchasing at Bouygues Construction. He will take charge of Bouygues Construction's Central Purchasing Unit, which was set up in 2000 to organise and optimise the Group's procurement activities.

His priorities will include broadening the referencing of international products and making it more reliable, raising the skill levels of purchasing professionals, and seeking out innovations.

Franck Le Guillou, aged 45, holds a Masters in Industrial Purchasing Management from ESC Bordeaux. He began his career with the Danone Group and the Roullier Group. In 2000 he joined the Saur Group, which was then a Bouygues subsidiary. Since 2010, he has been head of purchasing for Bouygues Construction's Energy and Services division (ETDE) and its Concessions division.
